

Friday, August 28

Palazzina Lorenese – ROOM C

ICU and Transplantation: Simulated Clinical Scenarios

Course Directors: A. Arcadipane (Italy), G. Burgio (Italy), G. Chiaramonte (Italy)

Restricted-access course, limited to 20 participants (physicians, nurses, junior intensivists)

The workshop will only be held if the established number of 20 attendants is reached

Registration fee: € 60,00 VAT included

10.00 am > 12.00 pm

1st Scenario

Management of Multi-Organ Donor in ICU

G. Burgio (Italy)

10.00 am	Welcome address, introduction to the simulation environment and to simulation modalities
10.10 am	Introduction to the 1st clinical case: Management of multiple organ donors in the intensive care setting
10.20 am	Clinical case simulation with direct involvement of one or two participants
10.45 am	Debriefing with questions concerning the clinical case and the simulation session, and answers from the participants with the televoting system

11.00 am Break

2nd Scenario

Fulminant Hepatitis - Management of ICU Patient Before Liver Transplant

G. Chiaramonte (Italy)

11.10 am	Introduction to the 2nd clinical case: Management of patients with fulminant hepatitis admitted to the intensive care unit and candidate for liver transplantation
11.20 am	Clinical case simulation with direct involvement of one or two participants
11.45 am	Debriefing with questions concerning the clinical case and the simulation session, and answers from the participants with the televoting system